ABOUT THE SEMINAR

As a part of The Institute of Cost Accountants of India's mission to advance the professional growth of members, the Navi Mumbai Chapter has embarked on organizing Annual Seminars, Special Programs and Monthly CEPs to support Professionals, Industry and Trade.

India is one of the fastest growing economy with a target to become a developed nation by 2047 Viksit Bharat. We are going through a transformation with globalization, technological advancement, dynamic business scenario to compete with developed nations. This has impacted the role of accountant as well with change in regulations, Financing models, market economy, reporting and controlling requirement and Changing parameters of deliverable standards. An accountant needs to see much beyond his traditional role of reporting and compliance. He should be a transformer right from business planning, Financing, Analyzing and Controlling the business scenario, to ensure the growth of the organization, thereby growth of the Nation.

Hence, we Navi Mumbai Chapter of Cost Accountants of India selected the theme for this Seminar as “Beyond Distinct role - in Funding, Control and Business Analysis”.

During this full day seminar, we will cover topics like, System Audit and Business control, Analysis of SME/ Startup Funding, GST – Business Scanning and litigation process.

We are delighted to inform you that we have eminent speakers on these topics who are doyens in their respective spheres.

We strongly believe that these topics will give you deep insights on these subjects and will bring more opportunities for CMAs and Finance professionals.
